TESTIMONIAL

RANK/ NAME: SCSGT(1) NAGOOR KANI MOHAMMED FAIZ
NRIC: T0171975G

SCSGT(1) Nagoor Kani Mohammed Faiz enlisted in the Singapore Police Force (SPF) on 8 January 2020. During his stint at the Home Team Academy, he underwent three months of Police Officer Basic Course (POBC) and three months of Neighbourhood Police Centre Officer (NPCO) course. Thereafter, he was posted to Ang Mo Kio North Neighbourhood Police Centre Officer (NPC) as an NPCO.

SCSGT(1) Faiz exhibited qualities of a model patrol officer. Vigilant and ready, he was able to interact with the members of the public and assisted them professionally. Members of the public complimented him as he had consistently delivered excellent service. He remained humble, confident and polite when he engaged with his supervisors, peers and members of the public.

SCSGT(1) Faiz was able to communicate effectively with his supervisors and colleagues. He was an amiable co-worker who was tactful yet assertive when the need arose. As a good team player, he would voice his opinions and provide suggestions to rectify problems. He was always willing to help when his fellow officers required assistance.

SCSGT(1) Faiz maintained a positive mindset throughout his National Service and performed his duties to the best of his abilities. He was a well-disciplined and responsible officer. He readily availed himself whenever the need arose even when he had to sacrifice his personal time. He took pride in his work and had demonstrated great enthusiasm in serving his community. In addition to his core duties, SCSCT(1) Faiz also volunteered himself for a division's welfare event where officers collaborated with the People's Association to distribute food to the less fortunate families.

With his service excellence, communication skills and positive mindset, SCSGT(1) Faiz was an outstanding officer. His efforts and contributions were invaluable, and an asset to the SPF. We believe that he will do well in his future endeavours.
